

Craig W. Shimahara

Shimahara Graphics

Education:

University of California, Los Angeles – Masters of Architecture, 1995

University of California, Irvine – Bachelors of Arts, Studio Art, 1992

Experience:

Shimahara Graphics, President/CEO (1999 – Present)

Responsible for delivering quality digital graphics/animations for multi-faceted architectural, engineering, and legal projects:

- State of California, *The State of California v. Lloyd's of London, et al.: Shimahara Graphics produced a series of animations illustrating the multiple occurrences and history of a chemical plume in Riverside, California
- Santa Clara Valley Transportation Authority, BART Extension: Shimahara Graphics produced a public relations animation illustrating various aspects of the underground construction process, specifically the mechanics of a tunnel boring machine
- Aguas Argentinas, *Wayss & Freytag v. Aguas Argentinas: Shimahara Graphics produced a series of animations illustrating various elements of a claim involving the potable water system of Buenos Aires. These animations were used for arbitration in the International chamber of Commerce
- Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority, Atlanta International Airport: Shimahara Graphics produced a series of animations and renderings to assist the planning process of the Phase II design
- Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport, Terminal D: Shimahara Graphics produced a series of digital renderings of the new terminal, concourse, and parking structure designs. These exhibits that were used for public relations and marketing
- City of Los Angeles Bureau of Engineering, Santa Monica Transit Parkway: Shimahara Graphics produced a series of photo-simulations describing the proposed design interventions along a three mile stretch of Santa Monica Boulevard
- City of San Diego, San Diego Federal Courthouse: Shimahara Graphics produced a series of digital renderings illustrating the new design by Richard Meier and Partners
- AEG, Los Angeles Convention Center Hotel: Shimahara Graphics produced a series of digital renderings and photo-simulations of the project, used for public relations and marketing
- University of Virginia, South Lawn: Shimahara Graphics produced a multi-media presentation illustrating various capitol improvements to the campus

Gensler, Architectural Designer (1994 – 2000)

References:

- John Hawley
Hatch Mott MacDonald, Tunnel Segment Design Manager – (408) 456-8175
- Daniel Shultz
Co-lead Trial Counsel for The State of California v. Lloyd's of London, et al. – (480) 775-7200
- Lori East
Director of Marketing, Richard Meier Partners – (310) 208-6464