

CURRICULUM VITAE

NAME: Philip Indrajit Kaushall, PhD, QME
ADDRESS: 2830 Fourth Avenue, San Diego, CA 92103
EMAIL: <pkaushall@yahoo.com>; TELEPHONE: 619-692-1552;
BORN: Ludhiana, India; now U.S. citizen

EDUCATION

B.Sc.	Bristol University, Bristol, England	1958-1960
M.A.	Simon Fraser University, British Columbia, Canada	1968-1970
Ph.D.	Cornell University, Ithaca, NY	1970-1975
Post-Doctoral Fellow,	Center for Human Information Processing, UCSD	1975-1977
Research Pediatric Neuropsychologist,	UCSD School of Medicine, La Jolla, CA	1977-1983
Licensed Psychologist in California since		1986

PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGY EXPERIENCE

Clinical/Neuro-Psychologist in Private Practice: specializing in individual, couples, child and family psychotherapy; psychological and neuropsychological evaluations, and psycho-educational testing for learning issues, brain injury and disabilities. Pain treatment, hypnosis and cognitive rehabilitation.

Supervising Psychologist at Forensic Psychiatry Unit, Superior Court of San Diego county: for medical students' rotations; performing a variety of court-referred evaluations, both civil and criminal, including guardianship, competence, conservatorship, dangerousness, pre-sentencing.

Fellow, American College of Forensic examiners: Forensic evaluations; Expert Witness; Forensic Consultant. Recognized by: Superior Court, County of San Diego, Department of Health and Human Services; Children's Services Bureau; Department of Probation.

Diplomate, American Board of Psychological Specialties (Child Psychology, Neuropsychology):
Editorial Advisory Board of 'The Forensic Examiner'.

Qualified Medical Evaluator in Psychology for state of California: Workers' Compensation evaluations. Disability evaluations for Office of Hearings and Appeals, Social Services Admin.

Adjunct Research Faculty, California School of Professional Psychology, San Diego: Supervising and teaching of doctoral students: Research Design, Perception and Cognition, Neuropsychology, doctoral students Supervision Seminar, from 1983 to 2000.

National University, Department of Public Policy and Administration, Forensic Science Faculty, 1998:

taught course on Psychology, Psychiatry and the Law.

Philip I. Kaushall, PhD

CURRICULUM VITAE

Page 2

Director, Psychology Affiliates, providing forensic evaluations and consultation, neuropsychological (disability; brain injury) evaluations, and psychotherapy. Family issues: parental rights, child placement, domestic violence, child abuse and neglect, parental alienation. Elder issues: competence, undue influence, medical treatment decisions, guardianship.

Issues of professional psychology, malpractice and ethics: Co-founder, The Center for Professional Ethics and Law (a 501c3 non-profit organization).

1986-1991 Consultant to New Alternatives, Comprehensive Adolescent Treatment Center. Program planning and case consultations. Therapy with alienated, disturbed and conflicted children, and parents.

Consultant to Pain Treatment Center, San Diego, neuropsychological evaluations, bio-feedback and hypnosis, rehabilitation therapy.

With co-author Dorothy Zimbleman, Child Protective Services, San Diego: Created training videos and programs in assessing children, for social workers, with focus on techniques of interviewing.

1986 Family Advocacy Specialist, US Navy Family Service Center, San Diego Naval Station: Domestic Violence, Crisis Intervention, parent-child conflict.

1985-1986 Scripps Clinic and Research Foundation: Research Psychologist on USAF Health Study on neurotoxins. Research involved neuropsychological evaluations of Air Force personnel, using the Halstead-Reitan Neuropsychological Battery and MMPI; counseling and debriefing of subjects.

1985 Psychology Intern at US Navy Family Service Center, San Diego Naval Station: counseling, assessment and referral, and crisis intervention. Formed support group for single parents, military and civilian: issues of organizational skills, family control, finances, father absence, alignment and alienation of children, domestic conflict. Also a stress management group for military personnel.

1984-1985 Clinical Psychology Intern at Southwood Psychiatric Residential Treatment Center, San Diego. Therapy focused on reconciliation of families, alienation, psychological assessment and counseling.

1983-1984 San Diego Regional Center for the Developmentally Disabled: Registered Psychologist and Intern. Assessment of disabilities and brain syndromes, with a range of tests batteries: Luria-Nebraska, Leiter, Bayley Scales of Infant Development. Family counseling and treatment planning. Rehabilitation and retraining of brain-injured.

Philip I. Kaushall PhD, QME

CURRICULUM VITAE

Page 3

- 1977-1983 Assistant Research Pediatric Neuropsychologist, Department of Pediatrics, UCSD School of Medicine. Principal Investigator: Research on perceptual development of infants and children. Funded by The March of Dimes /Birth Defects Foundation. Research on clinical aspects of memory, with Larry Squire PhD, Department of Psychiatry, UCSD School of Medicine.
- 1977-1976 Lecturer, Department of Psychology, University of California, San Diego and LA. Post-Doctoral Fellow, Center for Human Information Processing, UCSD. Research on Imagery and Cognition.
- 1977 Primary author of college text THE GROWING YEARS (with Kiki Skagen). The text covers human development from birth to adulthood; 300 pages; a telecourse for colleges; McGraw-Hill (three editions).
- 1970-1975 Cornell University, Department of Psychology Graduate School. Dissertation on ecological perception related to environmental adaptation. Chair: Professor James J. Gibson (Ecological Psychology); with Committee members Professor Ulrich Neisser (Cognition and Memory), Professor Dan Tapper (Physiological Psychology) and Don Hayes (Social Psychology). Research on Development in laboratory of Professor Eleanor Gibson.
- 1968-1970 Simon Fraser University, Department of Psychology Graduate School. Thesis research on brain integration and dissociation in visual perception. Chair: Professor Lorne Kendall. Courses in Psychopathology, Learning Theory, Social Psychology, Statistics, Neuropsychology, among others.
- 1967-1968 Counselor and Instructor at McMurray Vocational Institute, Fort McMurray, Alberta, Canada. Created culturally-sensitive learning programs based on cognitive-behavioral principles, addressing issues of cultural alienation.
- 1966-1967 School Psychologist, New Westminster and Coquitlam School Districts, B.C. Canada. Psychological and educational evaluations. Research on Learning Disabilities; individual and family counseling.
- 1965-1966 Market Research executive with Ben Crow and Associates, Vancouver, B.C., Canada. Research on advertising effectiveness, opinion polling, marketing and product development.
- 1961-1965 Market Research executive with J. Walter Thompson Advertising, and Unilevers Ltd,

London, England. Psychological and Consumer research on products and advertising, concerning persuasion and acceptance. Author: Selective Attention and Perception: A Research Review, for British Advertising Council.

Philip I. Kaushall PhD, QME

CURRICULUM VITAE

Page 4

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Current:

Association for Psychological Science
American College of Forensic Examiners
American Board of Disability Analysts
Psych-Law Society of San Diego
American Professional Society on the Abuse of Children
California Coalition on Sexual Offenders
San Diego Brain Injury Foundation

Past:

American Psychological Association
California Psychological Association
San Diego Psychological Association
Professional Advocacy Network
San Diego Neuropsychological Society
International Society for Prevention of Child Abuse
San Diego Child Abuse Coordinating Council
San Diego Group Psychotherapy Society
Society of Professionals in Dispute Resolution

RESEARCH GRANTS

March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation
1979-1983: Developmental Neuropsychology of perception and cognition in infants

PUBLICATIONS

Books

Kaushall, P.I. and Skagen, K. The Growing Years. NY: McGraw-Hill, 1977-1985 (3 editions); 30 chapters; 300 pages. This college course book that covers birth to adulthood is accompanied by a telecourse.

Articles

Kaushall, P.I. Child Confessions: Assessing the Validity of Child Confessions and Interrogations. The Forensic Examiner, April/May 1999.

Kaushall, P.I. The O.J. Simpson Trial and Virtual Reality. The Forensic Examiner. March, 1999.

Philip I. Kaushall, PhD, QME
Page 5

CURRICULUM VITAE

Kaushall, P.I. Justice or Inquisition? Focus on the Board of Psychology. PAN Observer, June 1997 [the official newsletter of Professional Advocacy Network; an organization concerned with professional licensing issues in the health fields].

Nelson, E.L. and Kaushall, P.I. Framework for Deposing a Mental Health Practitioner when Issues involve Allegations of Sexual Abuse. Issues in Child Abuse Accusations, July/August, 1995.

Lynch, K , JD, PhD and Kaushall, P.I. The Therapist Accused: Reasons, Reactions and Results. The California Psychologist, February 1995.

Kaushall, P.I. Fathers and Child Custody; The Custody Revolution: A Critical Review. Family and Conciliation Court Review, 1994, 32, 398-404.

Kaushall, P.I. , Zetin, M. and Squire, L. A psychosocial study of chronic, circumscribed amnesia. J. Nervous and Mental Disease, 1981, 169, 383-389.

Kaushall, P.I. and Parsons, L. Optical Information and Practice in the Discrimination of 3-D mirror-reflected Objects. Perception, 1981, 10, 545-562.

Kaushall, P.I. Functional Asymmetries of the Human Visual System in Binocular Rivalry and Binocular Brightness Matching. American Journal of Optometry and Physiological Optics, 1975, 52, 509-520.

Films

Gibson, James J. and Kaushall, P.I. Reversible and Non-Reversible Events. Research Film available from Psychological Film Register, Penn. State University, Catalogue No. PCR-536, 1973. The film depicts time reversals and event distortions, to illustrate processing and recall from witnessing natural events.

Kaushall, P.I. Down The Road. Educational narrative film; conceived, directed and edited for Department of Education, Alberta, Canada, 1968; 30 minutes.

SELECTED PRESENTATIONS

Terri Schiavo: Analysis of Neurological Examinations (with Michael S. Evans, MSW, JD).
Bio-Ethics and Law Group, Grand Rounds, UC Irvine School of Medicine; February 2006

Evaluating a Request for a Hastened Death: Issues of Psychology, Law and Ethics.(With Michael S. Evans, JD, MSW) A Presentation at American College of Forensic Examiners 13th Annual National Conference, September 2005, San Diego, CA.

Philip I. Kaushall, PhD, QME

CURRICULUM VITAE

Page 6

Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder and Multiple Personality. Chair, Panel presentation at American College of Forensic Examiners Annual Conference, Las Vegas, 2000.

Sense and Nonsense in Mental Health Testimony. (with Michael S. Evans, JD, MSW)
Medial Professional Liaison Section, San Diego Bar Association; August 1998.

Natural History of Child Abuse Allegations: from Suspicion to Conviction (with Michael S.
Evans, JD, MSW). California Psychological Association Annual Convention, 1996.

Advanced Jury Science for the Mental Health Practitioner. (with Ken Lynch, JD, PhD)
California Psychological Association Annual Convention, 1996.

Assessing Psychological Harm and Risk: Forensic Considerations (with Michael S. Evans, JD, MSW). California Psychological Association Annual Convention, 1996.

Dealing with a Disgruntled Client: Protecting your Practice, Reputation and License (with Michael S. Evans, JD, MSW and Marie La Sala, JD) Psych-Law Society, October 1995.

Jury Selection for the Psychologist (with Ken Lynch, JD, PhD). California Psychological Association; February 1995.

Multi-Cultural Families: Conflicts and Resolutions. At A Time To Heal. (with Linda Walker, LCSW). Annual state-wide conference on child abuse prevention; San Diego, 1993.

VOLUNTARY ACTIVITIES

Co-Founder, The Center for Professional Ethics and Law, 1996, a non-profit 501(c)(3).

Co-Founder, Professional Advocacy Network (PAN). Editor of PAN Observer, a quarterly newsletter, 1992-1995.

Chair, Government Affairs Committee, San Diego chapter of California Psychological Association, 1991-2.

Chair, Professional Education, Research, and Training Committee, San Diego County Abuse Coordinating Council, 1992-3.

Member, Board of Directors, California Psychological Association, 1991-2.

Child Protective Services Task Force, Practice Issues Sub-Committee, San Diego, 1997.

Adolescent Issues Committee, S.D. Co. Commission on Children and Youth, 1987-1992.

American Red Cross Certified Disaster Volunteer.

Philip I. Kaushall, PhD, QME

CURRICULUM VITAE

Page 7

DOCTORAL STUDENTS' RESEARCH AND DISSERTATION SUPERVISION (California School of Professional Psychology; 1983 to 2000)

Christy Smith: Self-Identity and Sex-Role Identity in Adolescent Girls with Bulimia. 1985

Tom Ryan: Short-Term Remediation; Memory Deficits in Moderate to Severe Closed Head Injury. 1986.

Sharon Allen: Discrimination of Facial Expressions of Emotion; Developmental Study comparing Autistic and Normal Children. 1988.

Sam Williams: Maternal Qualities associated with Impulsivity in Adolescent Girls. 1989.

Peter McKimmin: Tickling Sensation, Pleasure and Anxiety, and the Role of Perceived Control. 1989.

Cathy Ascuitto: The Effects of Subliminal Stimulation on the Interpretation of Ambiguous Sentences and Figures. 1990.

Enid Singer: Identifying Sexually Abused Female Children via the Evidentiary Interview. 1991.

Barbara DeLeo: The Treatment Efficacy of Time-Limited Group Therapy with Incest Survivors 1992.

Jonathan Lent: The Confluence of Self-Consistency and Self-Enhancement towards the Integration of Self-Discrepant Feedback. 1993.

Mary Martin: Secret-Keeping Behavior in Five and Six year old Boys and Girls. 1996.

Jonelle Sellers: Efficacy of Eye-Movement Desensitization Procedure and Accelerated Massed Desensitization in Treatment of Anxiety. 1997.

Hector Gonzales: Autism, Classical Conditioning of the Eyelid Reflex and Cerebellar Abnormalities. 1998.

Michael Vickroy: EMG Indicators of Muscle Strain, Muscle Activity, and Stress in Repetitive Work. 1999.

PHILIP KAUSHALL, PHD, QME