

...

Mr. Beck is the Founder of Searchers Investigating Company. During the forty-odd years Mr. Beck has been engaged in the investigative business, he has trained literally hundreds of investigators, many of whom have gone forward to establish their own agencies throughout the country. Searchers is known as a training ground for investigators. While operating Searchers Investigating Company, Mr. Beck has represented leading law firms and major corporations throughout the country, as well as numerous governmental agencies, including the FDIC, U.S. Attorneys Offices, various State Agencies, and a vast number of City Attorneys. Mr. Beck is a charter member of the California Association of Licensed Investigators and a long-standing member of the National Association of Legal Investigators. Mr. Beck has been a featured speaker before many state bar associations, insurance companies, banking organizations and credit managers associations. He has also appeared on various radio and television talk shows in San Diego and spreading north to the San Francisco/San Jose area. Mr. Beck's recent appearances include the Civil Litigation Section of the Desert Bar Association, the Business Litigation Section of the North San Diego County Bar Association, the Century City Bar Association, and a Continuing Education of the Bar (CEB) Seminar where attendees received accreditation. On May 7, 1988, Mr. Beck was presented with the California Association of Licensed Investigators Award, in recognition of exceptional skills and experience, designating him as Certified Professional Investigator in accordance with the certification program of the Association. Articles Mr. Beck has authored have appeared in the December 18, 1979, U.S. News and World Report and the U.S. News Washington Letter. In January 1980, an article entitled Assets appeared in The Los Angeles Business Journal. On October 1, 1989, The Sunday Los Angeles Times Magazine printed Down These Mean Streets, an article written by Mr. Beck, which was also carried in newspapers in London and throughout Europe. Numerous California and major U.S. city newspapers have carried stories on the successful completion of various investigations by Searchers. Publications include The Case of the Woman Alone in the World, which appeared in the August 1961 issue of Insurance Adjuster. Mr. Beck is eminently qualified to author this correspondence course, supplying his many secrets.....