

SAMUEL H. KELMAN, D.O. FAAPMR
Diplomate of American Board of Physical Medicine,
Rehabilitation & Electrodiagnostic Studies
175 West Merrick Road
Freeport, New York 11520
516-379-7550

MEDICAL CERTIFICATION
& LICENSURE:

1993	Board Certified – The American Osteopathic Board of Rehabilitation Medicine
1992	Board Certified – The American Board of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation
1989	Diplomate of the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners
1989	New York License

EDUCATION:

June 1986	Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine East Lansing, Michigan
May 1981	Bachelor of Science – with High Distinction Wayne State University Detroit, Michigan

POST GRADUATE TRAINING:

July 1989 – June 1991	St. Vincent's Hospital Medical Center Rehabilitation Medicine New York, New York
July 1987 – June 1988	Metropolitan Hospital Medical Center New York Medical Collage Rehabilitation Medicine New York, New York
July 1986 – June 1987	Brookdale Hospital Medical Center Rotating Internship Brooklyn, New York

EMPLOYMENT:

April 1998- Present

President and Medical Director of South Shore Medical & Rehab, P.C.

July 1992 – Present

Private Practice

July 1991 – June 1992

Attending Psychiatrist and Clinical Instructor
Jamaica Hospital Medical Center - Jamaica,
New York – NY – Affiliate of Long Island
Jewish Medical Center

AWARDS:

Phi Beta Kappa

PROFESSIONAL SOCIETY
MEMBERSHIPS:

The American Academy of Physical
Medicine and Rehabilitation

The American Osteopathic Association

The American Osteopathic College of Rehabilitation Medicine

The New York Society of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation

Kings County Medical Society

PUBLICATIONS:

May 1992

Biography of a Psychiatric Luminary and Clinician – Dr. Gary Davidoff – Kelman,
Samuel H. Young, M.A. JAMA 267;17 pp
2399

PRESENTATIONS:

February 1991

Rehabilitation of Down's Syndrome

October 1990	Motor Paralysis of Herpes Zoster – St. Vincent’s Hospital
May 1990	NON Surgical Approach and Prevention of Decubitus Ulcers – St. Vincent’s Hospital
December 1989 SAMUEL H. KELMAN, D.O. Page 3 of 3	Acoustic Neuroma
November 1989	The Occipital Lobe
May 1988	Dermatomyositis
April 1988	Amputations – Below and Above the Knee – “Who is a good Candidate?”
February 1988	Anterior Cruciate Ligament Tears – Rehabilitation after Injury
September 1987	Head Trauma