

July 2, 2008

ELLIOTT M. STEIN, M.D., GERIATRIC PSYCHIATRY

4300 Alton Rd., Suite 360,
Miami Beach, FL 33140
Telephone: (305)534-3636
Fax: (305)534-1421

Profile:

Legal and forensic consultation, record review, and assessments concerning psychiatric issues in older individuals, including issues of competency, testamentary capacity, undue influence, contested wills and trusts, memory disorders, emotional disorders, dementia, Alzheimer's Disease, delirium, Medicare and other psychiatric and aging related issues in concerning psychotherapy, medications, hospitals, nursing homes, independent and assisted living facilities.

In clinical practice of Geriatric Psychiatry for more than 31 years, specializing in the treatment of older adults including the evaluation and treatment of depression, anxiety, stress disorders, relationship problems, insomnia, memory problems and other mental and emotional problems which occur in the second half of life.

Areas of Expertise:

- Geriatric Psychiatry evaluation and treatment, including pharmacologic and psychotherapeutic issues
- Depression and Anxiety Disorders in the Aged
- Contested Wills and Trusts
- Testamentary Capacity, including Undue Influence and Insane Delusions
- Geriatric Competence
- Dementia and Delirium, including Alzheimer's Disease
- Aging and Mental Disorders
- Geriatric Psychiatric related issues concerning hospitals, nursing homes, independent and assisted living facilities.
- Medicare Psychiatric Services Coding and Documentation.

Education/Certifications/Licenses/Honors:

M.D. Board Certified in General Psychiatry and Geriatric Psychiatry. Licensed to practice Medicine in Florida and California. Clinical Professor, Department of Psychiatry, University of Miami, Miller School of Medicine. Distinguished Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association. Recipient of multiple honors in Geriatric Psychiatry.

Primary Area of Expertise: Geriatric Psychiatry