shampton@CamposIP.com

Mr. Hampton is a partner of Campos & Stratis, an accounting and economic consulting firm. Prior to joining Campos & Stratis in 1997, he was with Arthur Andersen & Company and KPMG Peat Marwick. He is a licensed certified public accountant in California, Washington, and Utah. Mr. Hampton also has an accreditation in business valuation (ABV) from the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He has lectured on IP and economic damages before gatherings of the Washington State Bar Association, Utah State Bar Association, Law & Economics Society, the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts (NACVA), and the Licensing Executive Society. He is past chair of the Utah Association of Certified Public Accountants Litigation Services Committee and past chair of the Salt Lake City Chapter of the Licensing Executive Society. Mr. Hampton graduated from the University of Utah, David Eccles School of Business, in 1986 with a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting.

Mr. Hampton has 23 years of forensic consulting experience and has extensive experience in intellectual property valuation and calculating economic damages in commercial litigation. He has offered testimony in State and Federal courts and other dispute resolution forums related to large commercial litigation including breach of contract, construction delays and disruptions, and the infringement of patents, trademarks, copyrights, and misappropriation of trade secrets. He has prepared more than 100 Rule 26 reports related to intellectual property disputes, including patent, copyright, trademark and trade secrets. He has also calculated reasonable royalty damages on more than 30 occasions, valued intellectual assets for commercial purposes and assisted clients with license negotiations. In addition, Mr. Hampton has broad experience quantifying economic damages associated with breach of contract, construction, and business interruption claims. While with Arthur Andersen & Company, Mr. Hampton worked extensively on the Exxon Valdez oil spill litigation.

Intellectual Property

Mr. Hampton has performed economic analysis on matters involving H&R Block, Andrx Corporation, Medtronic Sofamor Danek, Medicis Pharmaceutical, Exide Battery, Exxon Mobile, K2 Sports, Bell Helicopter, Bowflex, Clorox, American Broadcasting Company (ABC), Target Stores, Bank of America, UbiSoft, Intuit, GlaxoSmithKline, Brunswick, Silicon Graphics, Chem-Dry, DataTreasury, Ingenico, Hexcel, Tyco Healthcare, The Home Depot, Kroger, Carroll Shelby Licensing, MGA Entertainment, Wal-Mart, Isabella Fiore, Tony Hawk Skateboards, Ogilvy & Mather Worldwide, and Alcoa.
