

CURRICULUM VITAE
Richard G. McCollum, M.D.
Seattle Bone and Joint Physicians, PLLC
P.O. Box 556
Mercer Island, WA 98040-0556
(206) 292-6210(voice msg)
rgmccollum@comcast.net

Date of Birth: August 16, 1936

Present Address: 4155 Boulevard Place
Mercer Island, Washington 98040

Marital Status: Married
Wife: Faye

Present Disabilities: Myopia, corrected with glasses

Military: Active Duty in U.S. Army, 1967-1969 as Orthopaedic Surgeon
Rank: Major
1 year, 121st Evacuation Hospital, Ascom, Korea
1 year Madigan General Hospital, Tacoma, WA.

Educational Experience: Paschal High School, Fort Worth, Texas 1954 (with great honors)
University of Texas, B.A., 1958 (with honors)
University of Pennsylvania, M.D., 1961

Postgraduate Training: Surgical Intern, Baylor University School of Medicine,
Jefferson Davis Hospital, 1961-1962
Surgical Resident, Hospital of University of Pennsylvania, 1962-1963
Residency, Massachusetts, General Hospital, and Children's Hospital, Boston,
April 1, 1964 to October 1967 (3 ½ years)
Senior Registrar, Princess Margaret Rose Orthopaedic Hospital, Affiliate,
University of Edinburgh School of Medicine, January to June, 1970

Active Surgical Practice: Swedish Medical Center, Seattle, Washington, 31 years

Certified: American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery 1969 (6/23/69)

License: Washington State: 252-09 0010794

Member: American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons
American Medical Association
King County Medical Society
North American Spine Society

Publications: "A Functional Brace for Congenital Club Foot" Clinic Orthopaedics, 1972

Academic Titles: Instructor, Harvard Medical School, 1967, Boston, MA,

Member of Department of Orthopaedics, University of Washington School of Medicine since 1973. Current position as Clinical Associate Professor.
Active in teaching second year medical students the Musculoskeletal Course 1990 through 2006.