

Irma Bebe, Ph.D.
4428 Saugus Avenue
Sherman Oaks, Ca. 91403
(818)995-0074

Title: VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION CONSULTANT

Education: 2000: AMERICAN PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, HAWAII

Doctor of Philosophy in Psychology

1988: CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, HAYWARD

Master of Science in Educational Psychology

1983: CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, NORTHRIDGE

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology

Certification: Certified Rehabilitation Counselor, C#33011

Membership: National Rehabilitation Association

Experience: CENTER FOR EMPOWERING MINDS, INC., SHERMAN OAKS, CA.

1997-Present: Owner

Providing counseling services to individuals with physical, emotional and psychological disabilities including Veterans

Providing forensic services including expert witness testimony

Conducting Academic and Behavioral Assessments

Interviewing disabled individuals, evaluating medical /psychological reports

Ongoing case management to assure successful rehabilitation

Evaluating the strengths and limitations of individuals and managing their disabilities

Developing and implementing a rehabilitation plan in order to help the individual become independent and employable

Administering and interpreting Scholastic Aptitude, Personality, and career tests

Using different behavioral approaches/ modalities in order to assist clients in the process of becoming independent

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY, LOS ANGELES, CA.

2005-Present: Adjunct Faculty (Graduate level)

Instructing graduate level courses in School Psychology: Ethics in School Psychology,

Program Evaluation, Behavioral and Emotional Assessment and Social Psychology

Giving assignments and administering examinations

Assisting individual students in special or remedial work

Monitoring Academic Progress and attendance

BRIGANTE & HARDAKER ASSOCIATES, TORRANCE, CALIFORNIA

1990-1997: Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor

Providing educational and vocational counseling to injured workers and Veterans

Administering Scholastic aptitude; interest, personality, and vocational tests

Interpreting such tests for educational and vocational planning

Interviewing and evaluating strengths and limitations of individuals

Developing and implementing a rehabilitation plan in order to assist the individual

Irma Bebe, Ph.D.
4428 Saugus Avenue
Sherman Oaks, Ca. 91403
(818)995-0074

become employable.

Participating in research for educational and vocational resource materials

PHILLIPS JR. COLLEGE, CARSON, CALIFORNIA

1990-1993: Instructor/Academic Advisor

Instructed classes in general psychology

Assisted in special or remedial work needed by students.

Participated in research curriculum development as a member of the staff.

Special Skills: Broad background in vocational evaluation and counseling. Thorough knowledge of various Community resources. Excellent Educational and Psychological testing and assessment skills. Extensive clinical and case management experience.

Languages: Armenian, Persian (Farsi)