

Curriculum Vitae

Extra-Abridged Version

Jones, Dr. Ira

Private Forensic Examiner

Certified by American College of Forensic Examiners

With Diplomate Status

Degrees from: Benedict College, Atlanta University, Wayne State University

Postdoctoral study: American University, Vanderbilt University and Oregon State University

Doctorate at Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan. General training on main campus; training in infectious diseases, medical school campus

Area of Specialization: Infectious diseases

Experience:

1. Three-year experience in parasitic diseases (mainly protozoology and helminthology) in Puerto Rico.
2. Consultant and Lecturer for the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (Atlanta, Georgia) for activity on the island of Puerto Rico.
3. Chief Scientist position at the Nuclear Center, Mayagüez, Puerto Rico, paid by National Nuclear Center, Oak Ridge, Tennessee.
4. Special lecture at over twelve hospitals in Los Angeles and Orange counties to registered nurses, giving training in parasitology, epidemiology, and pathophysiology.
5. Fifteen years- Consultant, Lecturer, Office of Diversity, School of Medicine, University of Southern California, Los Angeles.
6. Forensic Examiner- several cases, mainly in Los Angeles and Orange counties for private individuals, small and large law firms, with lawsuits ranging up to 1.5 million dollars.

Professional Travel:

1. Most states in the United States
2. Bahamas, Haiti, Dominican Republic, Virgin Islands, Jamaica, Curacao, England, France, Italy, Yugoslavia (sponsored by governments of the United States and Yugoslavia), Costa Rica

Publications:

1. Several articles in major journals
2. One laboratory manual

Seminars: Several

1. Invited by the medical staff at East Anaheim Hospital. Topic: Some Protozoa of Clinical Significance.
2. Health Science Center at Southern University at Baton Rouge, Louisiana
3. Special research findings presented before the Society of Tropical Medicine and the American Society of Parasitologists, in New Orleans, Louisiana. Topic: The Incidence of Trichomoniasis in the Long Beach, California Area.