

Biosketch of Jeffrey Nicholson, PhD, PA-C

Jeffrey Nicholson is and has been throughout his career a leader in the physician assistant profession providing local, state and national contributions to PA education, employment, and research. He currently serves in numerous leadership positions and on numerous boards.

They include:

- Distinguished Fellow, American Academy of Physician Assistants
- President, American Academy of Physician Assistants in Legal Medicine
- President, The PA Experts Medicolegal Consulting Network, LLC
- Board of Directors, Wisconsin Academy of Physician Assistants
- Board of Directors, Hillside Health Care International Mission Clinic
- Director of PA Education, St. Joseph Hospital Emergency Department
- Adjunct Clinical Faculty, University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health
- Adjunct Clinical Faculty, Marquette University Department of PA Studies
- Fellow, Society of Emergency Medicine Physician Assistants

He has been:

- Associate Professor at the University of Texas-Southwestern PA Program
- Program Director and Chair, University of Wisconsin-Madison PA Program
- Clinic Manager of the Family Practice Clinic at the Medical College of Wisconsin
- Stateside Director of Hillside Health Care International, international health education training site and mission clinic in Belize
- A local and national Speaker and Consultant on PA and NP utilization, employment and risk management

Jeffrey's educational background includes:

- Bachelor degrees from Boston College and the University of Wisconsin – Madison
- Masters degrees from Harvard University and the University of Nebraska
- PhD in Educational Leadership and Policy Analysis from the University of Wisconsin - Madison

Clinically, Jeff is a full-time emergency medicine PA for Wheaton-Franciscan Health Care hospitals in Milwaukee where he serves as senior preceptor and director of PA education. Academically, his scholarly works include articles and books published on PA education, PA employment and PA risk management. In 2007, he founded a consulting company called the PA Experts Network that provides expert opinions to attorneys and insurance companies on the standard of care of physician assistants. Jeffrey's areas of expertise include the education, utilization, employment and risk management of physician assistants and nurse practitioners.