

GEORGE A. TEER, P.E.
2108 Margie Court
Flower Mound, TX 75028

OBJECTIVE:

Failure, Damage and Accident Analyses, primarily in the mechanical fields

QUALIFICATIONS:

- 1979 to 2003 with Haag Engineering Co. conducting failure, damage and accident analyses with respect to many varied assignments, to include, but not limited to:
- refineries, food processing, chemical plants, general manufacturing, paper mills, machine guarding, code and OSHA compliance, slip and fall, ADA compliance, premises and construction accidents, fires and explosions
- vehicles, construction, forestry, boats, airfield ground equipment, buses, trucks, trailers, fires, RVs, evaluations
- inland marine, cargo losses, evaluations, cause of accident, repairability
- plumbing; corrosion, defective materials, installation problems
- HVAC and other mechanical systems, moisture ingress
- commercial roofing
- expert testimony in many state and federal courts
- thousands of analyses for insurance companies, manufacturers, utilities, regulatory agencies, attorneys, fleet and rental operators, property owners, etc.
- pipeline, oil and gas and fuel systems

EDUCATION:

1978 BSME minors in math and materials, Texas Tech, Pi Tau Sigma
NAFI 2002, Haag Engineering
Quarterly Engineering Exchange sessions with CEU credits
Industrial Building design, Texas A&M 1980
ASTM Tests in Building codes
Fracture mechanics, Texas A&M, 1982
Control of quality concrete, American Concrete Institute
Basic soil mechanics, UT Arlington

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE PRIOR TO ENGINEERING DEGREE:

Surveying, electrician, mechanic, driver, welder
Three years US Army avionics mechanic and Huey crewchief

REGISTRATIONS:

Licensed Professional Engineer in the states of: Texas, Arkansas,
Kansas, Kentucky, Missouri and Ohio

Phone: 972-691-4263, Fax: 972-691-4291, Cell: 214-914-0522
gateer@comcast.net