

LOUISIANA OFFICE

3501 HOLIDAY DRIVE, SUITE #314

NEW ORLEANS, LA 70114

CELL (24 HOURS): (504) 367-4072

FAX: (504) 367-3790

Email: oceanoilpazos@bellsouth.net

www.siterrific.com/pazos

OCEAN-OIL

EXPERT WITNESS, INC.

NAVAL ARCHITECTS and MARINE ENGINEERS

MARINE CONSULTANTS

FLORIDA OFFICE

P. O. BOX 47188

ST. PETERSBURG, FL 33743-7188

566 VILLA GRANDE AVE. S.

ST. PETERSBURG, FL 33707

PH: (727) 347-2556

FAX: (727) 343-9717

CELL (24 HRS): (727) 415-7192

Email: Hectorpazos75597@aol.com

MARITIME ARTICLES

MARINE, BOATING AND OFFSHORE OIL FIELD ACCIDENTS

GROUP 1:

1. Marine Disaster: Thirteen (13) People Died When A Passenger Tour Boat Sunk Due To Small Deficiencies (4 pages).
2. Unusual Marine Accident: Push Boat Capsized and Sunk - Crew Dragged Under a Barge (one crewmember died) (5 pages).
3. Slips and Falls in the Marine and Offshore Oil Fields (7 pages).
4. Maritime Disaster: Shift of Cargo Resulted in the Loss of Almost the Entire Crew (8 pages).
5. Deficiencies Found in Many Marine Stairways and Ladders Resulting in Accidents (6 pages).
6. Cruise Ship Passenger's Foot was Crushed by a Boarding Gangway (3 pages).
7. Self-Actuated Transmission Killed Two People – The Need for Propeller Guards (3 pages).
8. Unsecured Hatch Cover Resulted in Death (2 pages).
9. Confined Space Accident (4 pages).
10. Gasoline Explosion on a 32-Foot Aluminum Cruiser (4 pages).

GROUP 2:

1. Recreational Boat Accidents.
2. Lifting Related Accidents.
3. Offshore Personnel Transfer.
4. High Performance Power Boat Design and Construction Deficiencies.
5. Offshore Drilling Rig Accidents.
6. Crew Boat Accidents: Unseaworthiness.
7. Collision Of A Boat With A Channel Marker – Determination Of Who Was The Driver Thru Analysis Of The Injuries.
8. Easy To Prevent Accidents On Passenger Vessels.
9. Predictable Offshore Accidents.
10. Personal Injuries Resulting From Attempting To Board A Crew Boat Thru The Bow and Notes About the International Safety Management Code (ISM).