

BARBARA C. LUNA

Barbara C. Luna is a Senior Partner in the accounting and litigation services firm of White, Zuckerman, Warsawsky, Luna & Wolf. She has served as an expert witness for over twenty years in business and personal injury litigation and bankruptcy matters. Dr. Luna analyzes financial, accounting, economic, business, real estate and valuation issues relating to liability and damages in litigation matters and reorganization of businesses. She has testified on numerous occasions in U.S. District Court, Superior Court, Bankruptcy Court, arbitrations and depositions.

Prior to joining White, Zuckerman, Warsawsky, Luna & Wolf, Dr. Luna was a Partner with Coopers & Lybrand specializing in litigation and financial advisory services. Prior thereto, she was the National Director of Litigation consulting for Kenneth Leventhal & Company, where she was responsible for directing the litigation services practice nationwide. Previously, Dr. Luna was a Partner with Pannell Kerr Forster, where she was responsible for providing litigation and reorganization services, and she was a Senior Manager with Price Waterhouse specializing in litigation services. Before focusing on litigation services, she was an investment banker specializing in corporate finance.

Dr. Luna has taught graduate and undergraduate courses in working capital management, business finance and accounting at the UCLA Graduate School of Management and Pepperdine University. She has addressed numerous audiences and has appeared on several professional panels. She obtained her MS and PhD degrees in Applied Mathematics from Harvard University and her BA degree from Wellesley College.

Dr. Luna is a Certified Public Accountant, an Accredited Senior Appraiser in Business Valuation, Accredited in Business Valuation, a Certified Valuation Analyst, a Certified General Real Estate Appraiser, a Certified Commercial Real Estate Appraiser, a Certified Residential Real Estate Appraiser, a Certified Fraud Examiner, a Certified Management Consultant, and a Diplomate Board Certified Forensic Examiner and Accountant.
