

Robert M. Denny, CHS III is an independent security management consultant. Before starting his own consulting business, he served as Director of Global Security for Lam Research Corporation, a multi-national, high tech manufacturer with offices throughout the U.S., Asia and Europe. Prior to that, Bob was Director of Global Security and Safety for KLA-Tencor Corporation, another high tech, multi-national Corporation.

Mr. Denny was a Senior Loss Prevention Manager for Macy's, California, and the Regional Security Director for Mervyn's Department Stores and Distribution Centers in California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and Arizona. He has personally participated in over 400 apprehensions for internal and external crimes against retailers. His prior experience includes expertise in guard operations, mitigating workplace violence, employee dishonesty investigations, shoplifting detection, prevention and arrests, crime avoidance, protective services and Police Officer for the City of Santa Clara, California.

Mr. Denny travels extensively throughout the U.S., Europe and Asia on security related matters. He is a sought-after speaker on crime avoidance and cultural perceptions regarding security in both U.S. and non- U.S. locations.

Mr. Denny holds Bachelor's Degree in Business Management from Saint Mary's College of California. He has a lifetime teaching credential for California Community Colleges. He is a contributing author of the SECURITY MANAGEMENT and ACCIDENT PREVENTION MANUAL, published by the National Safety Council.

Affiliations and Certifications:

- Certified in Homeland Security, CHS III, by the American College of Forensic Examiners
- International Association of Professional Security Consultants
- American Society for Industrial Security, SFBA Chapter, Chairman Emeritus
- Association of Threat Assessment Professionals
- Advanced Computer Forensics, SANS Institute
- Advanced Interrogation Techniques, Reid Institute