Barry L. Pulchin, C.P.A., is a member of the firm of Pulchin, Goldstein & Company, LLP., a professional corporation that has significant litigation support practice. The firm is also licensed in the State of Connecticut.

He attended Bernard M. Baruch College and received his Bachelor of Business Administration in Public Accounting. He also earned an Associate of Applied Sciences from Queensborough Community College. He is admitted as a Certified Public Accountant in the States of New York, Connecticut, Florida, Massachusetts, and North Carolina. He lectures as a part of Continuing Professional Education to other Certified Public Accountants for the Foundation for Accounting Education; the Nassau County Bar Association; the Suffolk County Bar Association; and the Nassau County Academy of Law.

In addition to being a Certified Public Accountant, he maintains a New York State Life, Accident and Health, and Variable Annuities Insurance Agents License. He also holds a Federal Securities License Series 6 and the corresponding New York State Series 63. During August, 1992, he became a Certified Fraud Examiner. On August 14, 1995 he was conferred the designation of being a Certified Valuation Analyst. During September 1999 he was designated as a Diplomat of the American Board of Forensic Accounting.

Our firm specializes in business valuations and investigative and forensic accounting for diverse issues such as domestic relations, license valuations, professional practice valuations, minority shareholder disputes, insurance loss, lost earnings and profits, bankruptcy, estate and gift taxes, tax fraud cases, as well as commercial fraud investigations. He has appeared as a featured speaker on radio to discuss year end tax planning and general business and valuation topics. He has been quoted in the New York Times regarding the tax ramifications of cooperation ownership and exchanges of ownership. In addition, he has been recognized as an expert witness and have been court appointed in the New York State Supreme Court. He has served as the accountant in bankruptcy cases for the Debtor, the Creditor's Committee and for the Chapter 7 Trustees. In addition, his firm maintains a general commercial accounting practice with diversified clientele which includes an extensive practice in the insurance agency, insurance underwriting, reinsurance and actuarial industries. Other major commercial clientele are in the video duplication and real estate industries.
