

DR. COREY WEINSTEIN'S PUBLICATIONS

--Standards for Health Services in Correctional Institutions, American Public Health Association, 2003. Member of the 11 person APHA Task Force on Correctional Health Care Standards

--Rule 53: We Need You, Corey Weinstein, MD, CCHP, Journal of Law and Social Challenges, University of San Francisco, Vol.4, #1, Spring 2002, pp.145-149

--Improving Access to Health Care for California's Women Prisoners, Primary Consultant to author, Professor Nancy Stoller, University of California Santa Cruz, January 2001. Submitted to the California Policy Research Center.

--Maximum Security University, Weinstein and Quinn. A 45 minute video analyzing four shooting deaths on the CSP-Corcoran Security Housing Unit exercise yards awarded the PASS Award for 1999 by the National Council on Crime and Delinquency

--"Even Dogs Confined to Cages for Long Periods of Time Go Berserk," Weinstein, Building Violence: How America's Rush to Incarcerate Creates More Violence, John P. May, Editor, 2000, Sage Publications, Inc.

--"Health Care", Outsiders Looking In (How to Keep From Going Crazy When Someone You Love Goes to Jail), ONLINC Publishing, 1998

--"The Crime of Punishment, Pelican Bay Maximum Security Prison," Cummins and Weinstein, Criminal Injustice, Confronting the Prison Crisis, 1996, South End Press.

--"The Myth of Humane Imprisonment: A Critical Analysis of Severe Discipline in Maximum Security Prisons, 1945-1990", Hamm, Weinstein, et al, Prison Violence in America, 1994, Anderson Publishing Company.

-- "Forcing Alcoholic Prisoners to Join AA Is Ineffective," Weinstein, Alcoholism, Greenhaven Press, 1994

--Prisoner Health Guide, a self-health guide for prisoners, Inside/Out Press, '93

--Regular reports on investigations of Security Housing Unit conditions for Prison Focus and the Pelican Bay Prison Express, 1990-present

--"Sick Call", a regular column appearing in the California Prisoner, '84-'95, Prisoners Rights Union, Sacramento, CA.