Laurence A. Jacobs, MD

Chicago Area Fertility Specialist Selected

Laurence A. Jacobs, MD, a Chicago area Fertility Specialist/Reproductive Endocrinologist has received the honor of recognition in three Castle Connolly books: "AMERICA'S TOP DOCTORS 2002", "AMERICA'S TOP DOCTORS 2001" and "TOP DOCTORS – CHICAGO METRO AREA". "AMERICA'S TOP DOCTORS" recognize the nation's leading physicians. The books select the top 1/2% of medical specialists nationwide. In fact, Dr. Jacobs is the only Reproductive Endocrinologist/Infertility Specialist selected in the Chicago Northern and Northwest suburban area where he practices! And, just this month, Dr. Jacobs was recognized in the May issue of LADIES' HOME JOURNAL as a top fertility specialist nationwide.

Dr. Jacobs is the Chairman of the Gynecologic Laparoscopy/Endoscopy Committee at Lutheran General Hospital -- a major teaching medical center in the Chicago area. Dr. Jacobs is a Mayo Clinic trained Reproductive Endocrinologist/Infertility Specialist practicing in the Chicago area for over 20 years. Dr. Jacobs, who is on staff at Lutheran General Hospital, Northwest Community Hospital, and Highland Park Hospital, has his practice at FCI (Fertility Centers of Illinois, S.C.) where he primarily sees patients at the Glenview and Buffalo Grove offices. Most of Dr. Jacobs's patients come from the northwest suburbs with others coming to him from throughout the Chicagoland area and the Midwest.

To contact Dr. Jacobs or schedule an appointment, please contact FCI's patient liaison Michele at 847-917-5047 or fcj@integramed.com. More information about Dr. Jacobs and FCI is available at www.fcionline.com. FCI is affiliated with IntegraMed America, Inc. www.integramed.com.
