

EVAN A. BADER, MD, CPO (ret.), FAAOP
6820 STARPASS COURT
LAKE WORTH, FLORIDA 33463
561-968-8647
Ev5bd@aol.com

ORTHOTICS/PROSTHETICS
CURRICULUM VITAE

Apprenticeship Orthotics/Prosthetics – 1973 - 1978

Certified Prosthetics – 1978 until retirement

Certified Orthotics – 1979 until retirement

Licensed to practice Orthotics and Prosthetics nationwide – 1979 until retirement

Fellow of the American Academy of Orthotics and Prosthetics - 1999

Undergraduate -

Tulane University - New Orleans, LA
Bachelor of Science: Psychology
Biochemistry

Medical School -

University of South Florida - Tampa, FL

Residency -

University of Pennsylvania - Philadelphia, PA
Anesthesiology
Physical Medicine (non-surgical orthopedics)

Orthotics/Prosthetics

New York University School of Medicine
Northwestern University College of Medicine

Private Practice Orthotics/Prosthetics - 1979 - 2005

PAGE 2

Consultant to many legal proceedings involving major international corporations in reference to Orthotics or Prosthetics including patient examination, case review, deposition review, testimony at depositions and testimony in court including international and nationwide corporations such as Maersk Shipping, Norfolk Southern Railroad, Travelers Insurance, State Farm Insurance, Harrah's Entertainment, Firestone Tire, Tire Kingdom, Schneider Trucking, Veolia Waste, Onyx Management, Covenant Shipping, Norwegian Caribbean Cruise Lines.

Tapped by the American Academy of Orthotics and Prosthetics to lobby the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate for increased funding for research and Medicare reimbursement for Orthotics and Prosthetics.

Mentored numerous successful and highly regarded Orthotists and Prosthetists throughout private practice years.

Responsibilities during residency at The University of Pennsylvania included lecturing residents of Orthopedic Surgery and Physical Medicine in all aspects of Orthotics/Prosthetics.

Main investigator in numerous areas of research involving Orthotics and Prosthetics in partnership with Universities listed.

Due to a physical and medical disability Dr. Bader is currently retired.

Since his retirement, Dr. Bader has consulted with attorneys nationwide and appeared as an expert witness in various aspects on hundreds of cases. Dr. Bader also consults with fellow prosthetist/orthotists on many difficult patients.