

Shivi Sharma, MD, FACP

Board Certified in Internal Medicine | Hospital Medicine & Systems Expert
Associate Director, Hospitalist Service – Yale New Haven Hospital
Assistant Professor of Clinical Medicine, Yale School of Medicine

Contact

 Cell: (203) 988-7278
 Email: docsharma@gmail.com
 Southington, CT

Professional Summary

Hospitalist physician with over a decade of clinical and leadership experience in hospital medicine. Currently Associate Director of the Yale New Haven Hospitalist Service and Medical Director of a 31-bed telemetry unit.

Expert in:

- Hospital Systems & Workflow Analysis – Insight into how physicians, nurses, case managers, and ancillary staff interact across complex hospital systems.
- Standards of Care in Hospital Medicine – Extensive experience in direct inpatient care and physician supervision.
- Rapid Response & Critical Illness on the Floor – Leadership in hospital rapid response systems.
- Point-of-Care Ultrasound (POCUS) – Lead, hospitalist POCUS initiatives and educator.
- Sepsis Care & Quality Improvement – Led initiatives reducing mortality and improving patient safety.

Trusted to analyze and testify on both individual physician care and systemic hospital processes in litigation settings.

Licenses & Certifications

- Medical License: Connecticut (Active #050213)
- Board Certification: American Board of Internal Medicine
- DEA Registration: FS2783024
- ECFMG Certified

Academic Appointment

- Assistant Clinical Professor of Medicine, Yale School of Medicine (2011–Present)
 - Teach medical students and residents in clinical reasoning, hospital medicine, and patient care systems.

Professional Experience

Yale New Haven Hospital / Northeast Medical Group (2012 – Present)

- Associate Director, Hospitalist Service (100+ physicians across two campuses)
- Medical Director, 31-bed telemetry floor – responsible for patient flow, interdisciplinary coordination, and workflow design
- Lead, Hospitalist POCUS Initiatives and Educator – spearheaded adoption of point-of-care ultrasound and trained hospitalists in its application
- Lead, Rapid Response and Sepsis Quality Initiatives

Physicians Alliance of Connecticut (2015 – 2017)

- Director, Hospitalist Group – established inpatient care model improving continuity of care

Hospital of Saint Raphael (2011 – 2012)

- Chief Medical Resident – supervised residents in clinical care, education, and quality improvement projects

Education

- Residency, Internal Medicine – Hospital of Saint Raphael, New Haven, CT (2008 – 2011)
- MBChB (MD Equivalent) – University of Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa (2000 – 2005)

Professional Societies

- Fellow, American College of Physicians (ACP)
- Member, MENSA

Publications & Presentations (Selected)

- Tzogias L, Sharma S, et al. Natural history of the Sprint Fidelis lead: survival analysis from a large single center study. J Interv Card Electrophysiol. 2012.
- Multiple poster presentations at ACP Connecticut Chapter (2009–2011) on diabetes, infectious disease, and critical care.

Awards

- Yale New Haven Hospitalist Service – Patient Satisfaction & Readmissions Improvement Awards (2013)
- Intern of the Year – Helen Joseph Hospital, Johannesburg (2006)