Retired insurance executive and trial lawyer, Mr. Doucette brings to the forensic consulting practice an extensive knowledge of insurance coupled with an intimate knowledge of the court system and trial tactics.

Career History

Doucette & Associates, Brookfield, WI   2012 – Present
Mr. Doucette is the principal in Doucette & Associates, a forensic consulting firm, focused on insurance coverage questions and bad faith litigation.

Milwaukee Insurance Group, Milwaukee WI   1988-2012
                                                                                                                    1974-1976
This multi-line group of insurance companies had approximately $250 million of property and casualty premium, a life insurance subsidiary and affiliated businesses. It was a combination of a publicly traded holding company and a mutual insurance company parent. Through acquisitions and mergers, the group went through a number of corporate changes and affiliations. The public holding company and its downstream affiliates were acquired by a NYSE listed company. The mutual insurance company then converted to a holding company and acquired/merged with the First Nonprofit Insurance Group based in Chicago, IL.

Chairman   2005-2011
Mr. Doucette had corporate responsibility for all activity of the group including Milwaukee Insurance Company and First Nonprofit Insurance Company as well as the subsidiaries and affiliates. He was a member of the Claim Review Committee actively involved in reviewing and managing significant claims.

Chief Executive Officer   1991-2005
In 1991, Mr. Doucette assumed the CEO role including all P&L responsibility for the principal operations as well as all subsidiaries including the life insurance subsidiary and leasing affiliates.

Chief Operating Officer   1990-1991
In 1990, Mr. Doucette assumed full P&L responsibility for the group with the exception, at that time, of the life insurance subsidiary. Responsibilities included all operational reports, all financial reports, as well as the agency operations. During this period, all claim managers reported directly to Mr. Doucette and he remained actively involved in the management of all significant claims.
