

WILLIAM R. HORSTMAN, PH.D., ABPP
100 BUSH STREET SUITE 1428
SAN FRANCISCO, CA 94104
PHONE: 415-362-0630 FAX: 415-362-0631
bill@horstman.biz

CURRICULUM VITAE

Education:

Ph.D. University of Oregon 1972
M.A. San Francisco State University 1970
B.A. University of California at Los Angeles 1968

Appointments:

- Virtual Flight Surgeons: 2005
- American Academy of HIV Medicine (AAHIVM) 2004
- Diplomate, American Board of Professional Disability Consultants 2002
- Clinical Supervisor, pre and post doctoral interns, Psychological Services Center, California Institute of Integral Studies 1998-2001
- Professor, Advanced Clinical Skills, Department of Psychology, California Institute of Integral Studies 2001
- Panelist, California Forensic Assessment Project 1995
- Evaluator, Mentally Disordered Offender Program, State of California 1989
- Examiner, American Board of Forensic Psychology 1988
- Diplomate, American Board of Professional Psychology (ABPP) 1987
- Diplomate, American Board of Forensic Psychology (ABFP) 1985
- Fellow, American Academy of Forensic Psychology 1985
- Instructor: Direct and Cross Examination of Medical Experts, Hastings School of Law, San Francisco 1980
- Commissioner, Board of Psychology 1978
- Expert Psychological Consultant, Board of Psychology, Division of the Board of Medical Quality Assurance, State of California 1978
- National Register of Health Care Service Providers in Psychology 1978
- Member, Panel of Psychological Specialists, Disability Evaluation Program, Department of Health, State of California 1977
- Senior Psychologist, Panel of Expert Witnesses (Alienist Panel), Superior Court, City and County of San Francisco 1975
- Licensed Psychologist, Clinical, State of California (PSY 4149) 1974

Areas of expertise:

1. Neurobehavioral assessment and psychological treatment of patients with HIV and other chronic, life-threatening medical conditions
2. Independent medical evaluations to assess neuropsychological functional status for disability claims and determination of fitness for duty
3. Criminal and civil competency to stand trial assessments as defined by California's Penal Code §1368 and §810-§814 of the Probate Code,
4. Sanity and restoration of sanity as defined by §1026.(2) of the California Penal Code
5. Civil and criminal violence assessments and assessments of potential for violence recidivism
6. Detection of malingering or symptom validity for civil and criminal evaluations
7. Consultant and legal writer for direct and cross examination of medical/psychiatric experts
8. Neuropsychological evaluation for pilots (CogScreen-Aeromedical Edition)
9. Individual and couples psychotherapy
10. Ethical and legal conflicts in psychology

Professional history:

1971-present
Private Practice
100 Bush Street, Suite 1428
San Francisco, California 94104

1973-1975
Senior Clinical Psychologist
Jail Psychiatric Services, San Francisco, California

1973
Staff Clinical Psychologist with outpatient chief of crisis team
Northeast Crisis Services, San Francisco, California

1971-1973
Neuropsychological Assessment and Clinical Psychology
Pre & Post Doctoral Internship (APA approved), San Francisco Veterans Administration Hospital

Professional Associations:

- National Academy of Neuropsychology (NAN)
- American College of Forensic Psychology (ACSF)
- California State Psychological Association (CPA)
- Society for Personality Assessment (SPA)
- American Psychological Association (APA)
  - Member, APA Division 44 (Society for the Psychological Study of Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Issues) and APA Division 40 (Clinical Neuropsychology)
- Bay Area Lawyers for Individual Freedom (BALiF)
- San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association (SFTLA)
- National Gay Pilots Association (NGPA)
- American Psychology-Law Association (AP-LS)

Recent Professional Activities:

Primary Speaker at the 2004 Psychiatric Disability Consultants' Conference
Diagnosis v. Disability: Clarifying the Confusion about HIV & CFS
The Relationship Between

Lipoatrophy and Quality of Life, M. Echavez & W. Horstman,
The AIDS Reader 2005, 15(7):369-375.

Summary:

34 years of experience which includes over 1,500 individual and group psychotherapy patients; supervision of over 150 neuropsychological/clinical pre-/post-doctoral students and psychiatric residents; > 5,000 clinical, neuropsychological, and forensic examinations/reports; >300 Municipal, Superior and Federal Expert Court Testimonies as well as countless depositions.